

History, Geography, Foreign Language & RE Resources

Geography resources

National Geographic Kids - games, competitions and interesting fact files.

Water cycle – for children to discover how water evaporates and then returns to earth in a never-ending cycle.

What is weather? – text and diagrams from the BBC, exploring concepts related to the weather.

Geographic.org – basic information about climates, printable maps of various types, flags of the world etc.

ABC Teach outline maps – simple printable maps of each country of the world.

History

BBC Bitesize History - Learn more about your favourite period of British or World history.

Primary Homework Help – Lots of information linked to a variety of historical topics.

The Vikings – pictures and simple explanations about the Vikings.

The Tudors – All about Tudor times, other historical topics on this site too, following National Curriculum themes.

BBC History for Kids - Enter ancient worlds, meet famous people and discover fascinating facts about different stages of history.

Foreign language

Duolingo.com- learn a language for free

Memrise – Learn language through games and video clips on this online app.

Rosetta Stone – Rosetta Stone has given free access to its language learning resources.

Religious Education

World religions facts – a focus on the six major world religions. This is a primary school site with basic information and statistics.

Traditions of Easter – historical overview of how Easter developed, what its origins are, and where some of the traditions developed.

Islam Guide – a useful site explaining Islam. It is intended as educational for those who are not Muslims but would like to understand better what this religion is about.

Hinduism for Kids – from About.com, this gives sites relevant to children about Hindus

