

Online Safety

It is likely that your child/ren could be spending more time online than they perhaps normally do, therefore online safety is more important than ever. Here are some resources to both you and your children with this.

ThinkuKnow - advice from the National Crime Agency to stay safe online. Has a age appropriate online safety activities to work through with your children

BBC Own It! - Useful advice and games for upper KS2 children.

Internet matters - for support for parents and carers to keep their children safe online

London Grid for Learning - for support for parents and carers to keep their children safe online

Net-aware - for support for parents and careers from the NSPCC

Parent info - for support for parents and carers to keep their children safe online

UK Safer Internet Centre - advice for parents and carers

NSPCC It can be hard to know how to talk to your child about online safety.

The NSPCC can you understand the risks and keep your child safe by giving guidance on setting up parental controls, offering advice on games and apps.

CEOP If you or child are worried about online abuse or the way someone has communicated online with your child, let CEOP know.
